

Brachychiton acerifolius

Illawarra Flame Tree

Description

A semi-deciduous tree that produces bright red flowers after the leaves have been shed. The effect is that of a tree on fire. Leaves are extremely large and palmate shape. A gorgeous specimen tree suitable for parks, reserves or a large garden.

Specifications

Dimensions

Height: 10 to 15m, Width: 10m

Aspect:

Full sun

Origin

Australia

Pests & diseases

Kurrajong Leaf-tier (Dichocrosis clytusalis) and Kurrajong Weevil (Axionicus insignis) may attack unhealthy trees.

Typical sizes

200mm, 25ltr, 45ltr, 75ltr, 100ltr, 200ltr